UNISON Members win revised pay offer

UNISON 's pay campaign has won a revised pay offer of 1% plus a one off payment of £150 before tax for all Support Staff. Whilst still far below inflation it is significantly better than the original University offer of 0.4%.

For months the University were adamant they would not increase their offer. The revised deal is a testament to the thousands of leaflets given out by members, the walkabouts by reps and members getting their friends and colleagues to join us at the protest.

We were joined on the protest in opposing low pay, cuts to Public Services and tuition fees, by hundreds of students, showing what unity between staff and students can achieve.

With more members and more support from other trade unions we could have won a lot more.

...Votes to accept the revised pay offer

The Branch Meeting voted to reluctantly accept the revised pay offer as the best deal we could get without industrial action. Many members at the meeting felt strongly that we should take industrial action to protect our living standards and we have sent the University a strong message that we are not prepared to keep accepting below inflation pay offers.

...And backs the national TUC demonstration in London on Saturday 26th March

The meeting voted unanimously to support the national TUC demonstration 'All Together for Public Services.'

The Public Service cuts are the worst we have faced since the 1930's. Everything from a 40% cut to Higher Education and a 25% cut to Further Education along with the abolition of EMA for students, cuts to Council housing and increasing rents, cuts to school services for our kids, Social Services to rubbish collection - no part of our Public Services has been spared.

Meanwhile the Government continue to find money to bail out the banks and over £120 billion pounds per year is lost through tax evasion and tax avoidance by corporations and very wealthy individuals

It doesn't have to be like this. The TUC demonstration can mark a turning point in the campaign to defend our Public Services and our communities.

To book your ticket just email Matt Raine m.j.raine@bham.ac.uk or phone x58283. Tickets are £5, which will be refunded on the day. If you would like tickets to sell to your friends and colleagues we are happy to provide them up front to you
